EDITING YOUR COURSE LIST DISPLAY

The 'Courses' Tab

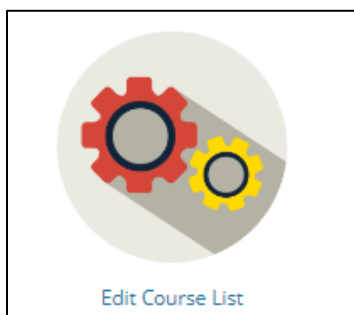

The Learning Edge 'Courses' tab displays courses that you have access to.

You might see information such as

- The course name and ID
- Module leader names
- New announcements, tasks or calendar events that have been added recently

If you want to hide some of this information, click on the 'Edit Course List' icon, found near the top right of the screen.

The 'Personalise: My Courses' page

This takes you to the 'Personalise: My Courses' page.

Here you can choose which pieces of information to hide, by un-ticking the checkboxes.

You can also use the 'Group by Term' checkbox to order your courses by academic year. This would allow you to display your list like the one below.

If a course has not been assigned to an academic year it will appear in the 'No Term Assigned' group.

My Courses

- ▶ Academic Year 2014/15
- ▶ Academic Year 2017/18
- ▶ Development Spaces
- ▶ Academic Year 2016/17
- ▶ No Term Assigned

You can use the check boxes to the right of each term to decide if the programme and module areas from each academic year appears on your Courses tab, and if the year is automatically expanded. This can be used to save space on your courses list by hiding old courses.
