Audit for Dyslexia Friendly VLE

Use of Banners for easier navigation Text is in a clear readable format and font e.g Verdana, 12 Colour Coding Use of good dyslexia friendly background – Light pastel colours such blue or yellow for main text Heading and Sub-headings differentiated Readings provided in a light pastel blue colour Providing information on activities in a different colour Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material		Partially Met	Met
Colour Coding Use of good dyslexia friendly background – Light pastel colours such blue or yellow for main text Heading and Sub-headings differentiated Readings provided in a light pastel blue colour Providing information on activities in a different colour Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Organise the Menu Area – Using suitable background colour, sub headings and dividers
Use of good dyslexia friendly background – Light pastel colours such blue or yellow for main text Heading and Sub-headings differentiated Readings provided in a light pastel blue colour Providing information on activities in a different colour Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Use of Banners for easier navigation
Use of good dyslexia friendly background – Light pastel colours such blue or yellow for main text Heading and Sub-headings differentiated Readings provided in a light pastel blue colour Providing information on activities in a different colour Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Text is in a clear readable format and font e.g Verdana, 12
Heading and Sub-headings differentiated Readings provided in a light pastel blue colour Providing information on activities in a different colour Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Colour Coding
Readings provided in a light pastel blue colour Providing information on activities in a different colour Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Use of good dyslexia friendly background – Light pastel colours such blue or yellow for main text
Providing information on activities in a different colour Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Heading and Sub-headings differentiated
Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Readings provided in a light pastel blue colour
Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Providing information on activities in a different colour
The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Visual Images support text and are clear and easily identified
Embedding materials within the course page • Videos embedded within the course pages • Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing • Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Providing materials to bring to face to face sessions in violet blue easier to differentiate
Videos embedded within the course pages Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	The use of learning module to create content and embedding discussion boards within the learning module
Powerpoints (Slideshare) – Attachment given for offline viewing Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Embedding materials within the course page
Course Handbooks (Issuu) Provided offline materials in PDF Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	 Videos embedded within the course pages
Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material
Renders easily on mobile Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Course Handbooks (Issuu)
editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them. Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Provided offline materials in PDF • Renders easily on mobile this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them. Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material	Provide documents and attachments in PDF unless it needs editing. This opens in a new window for easier navigation. PDF allows text to be read back to them.
abstract and images linking to the material	Using a clear description for Alt Text - Alt text defines what this image is for a visually impaired or blind user using assistive technology, such as screen readers. All image and multimedia files should have alt text associated with them.
Providing podcasts to support the auditory learner	Providing direct links to materials on the library catalogue, abstract and images linking to the material
	Providing podcasts to support the auditory learner		