

What are Science Direct Journals?

Science Direct is a journal collection database that offers full text access to 1,700 journals in a range of subjects..

How do I access Science Direct Journals?

- Like all our electronic resources, Science Direct Journals are accessible via the Library Catalogue.
- Enter Science Direct Journals in the search box, choose 'Electronic Library' from the right drop-down menu and click 'Submit'.
- Connect to the database by clicking on 'Website'.
