

Package of resources to support Edge Hill Alumni

We are pleased to announce that our Alumni can now access over 1,000 eJournals. These journals are part of collections from 6 publishers.

Childlink is unique European database of information on Welfare, Education, Health, Lifestyle, Justice, Youth Affairs, Employment, and Benefit Issues. It is designed to provide helpful and up-to-date information for policy makers, academics and people working with children and young people.

The Literary Encyclopedia is a reliable scholarly online literary reference work for English-language readers, primarily in higher education. It publishes biographies of major and minor writers; scholarly descriptions of texts; and a variety of descriptive and critical essays on literary, cultural and historical matters.©

Project MUSE is a provider of digital humanities and social science content. MUSE has full-text available from 185 scholarly journals and societies.

Emerald publishes in the fields of management disciplines from marketing, human resources management, and quality and operations management. This collection contains 175 journals.

The collection from Sage provides full text access to over 600 journals dating from 1999 onwards. Journals include those from learned societies and institutions, and across a broad range of subjects including business, humanities, social sciences, and science & technology.

Credo Reference is an online reference library of over 100 books. Credo Reference includes all types of reference books including encyclopaedias, dictionaries, thesauri and books of quotations.

Accessing these resources...

Our Alumni can access these eResources at home using the Edge Hill library catalogue (ehu.ac.uk/library), all you need is your library number and PIN. If you haven't already joined the library as part of the Alumni package at Edge Hill, please contact us and learn more about these great resources.
