NYQUEST Camp Canada

About us...

NYQUEST Camp Canada is an award-winning international staffing organization that recruits skilled young adults from around the world to work at camps across Canada. We have grown from a single full-time employee and two seasonal employees, to a well-structured team of twelve covering participant recruitment, intake, marketing, placement, work permits, orientations and general camping industry leadership. The current NYQUEST Camp Canada team is made up of individuals from six countries with over 20 collective years of camp experience. Mission: To enhance and diversify staff teams at camps across Canada. How is this done? - Recruit the highest quality international staff - Place them in positions at camp where they are most likely to succeed - Provide hands-on, personalized support for directors and staff

About the programme...

Are you ready for a new challenge? Looking for a chance to spend your summer working at one of the hundreds of amazing summer camps in Canada? Travel to Canada to work as a camp counsellor for 8-10 weeks this summer! NYQUEST Camp Canada is the ultimate resource for Canadian summer camp jobs and Canadian adventures. We take great pride in carefully placing you at a camp that matches your interests, dates of availability and your preferences related to work environment and type of campers. You will have an opportunity to express your preferences in the interview and on your application. We at NYQUEST pride ourselves in finding a placement for you that matches your skill set, needs and preferences. You may be placed in an all-around/general position or a more specialist position (for example, if you are an avid sailor, apply to be a sailing instructor!), or a combination of both. Before the placement is finalized you will have an opportunity to review the camp placement.
