

Exam Preparation – Transcript: Student Advisor Tips: Avoiding Comparison (audio note)

“I would say [try] to not worry and compare yourself with how much work other students have done, just because you have spent less time in the library studying than them, does not mean they will do automatically better than you, people can learn in different ways. And another point [to remember] is to bring enough pens!”